IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
APPELLATE SIDE
Writ Petition No.4033 of 2006

Mr.Sanjay Maniklal Pardeshi — Petitioner
Vs.
Maharshtra Scooters Ltd. — Respondent

Mr.Vishwanath Talkute for petitioner.

Mr.J.P.Cama, Senior Counsel with Mr.M.S. Topkar for respondent.

CORAM: B.H.MARLAPALLE, J.

November 30, 2007.

P.C.

. Heard Mr.Talkute, the learned counsel for the petitioner. Mr.Cama, the learned Senior Counsel appears with Mr.Topkar for the respondent - company.

. The petitioner is personally present in the Court and Mr.Talkute, on instructions, states that the petitioner has agreed for an amicable settlement on the condition that the deposited amount of Rs.2,12,921/- is allowed to be withdrawn by him along with the interest earned thereon towards the final settlement on the dispute of termination of service pending trial in Complaint (ULP) No.95 of 1999. Mr.Cama, the learned Senior Counsel states that the respondent - company is agreeable for the same and the petition could be disposed off by way of settlement including the pending complaint.

. Hence it is directed that the deposited amount of Rs.2,12,921/- along with interest earned thereon be refunded to the petitioner by the Labour Court at Satara and on such withdrawal Complaint (ULP) No.95 of 1999 shall be disposed as withdrawn on an application to be filed by the complainant while applying for withdrawal of the amount. The petitioner - complainant further declares that he will have no further grievance against the respondent - company save and except the legal dues, if any, like gratuity and these dues will be settled, in case they have not yet been settled, by the company within a period of four weeks from withdrawal of the complaint.

. On account of the settlement between the parties in the above terms, this petition stands withdrawn.
